

Town and Gown

Bowling Green State University provides a wealth of resources to the city. Volunteers perform countless hours of community service; practicum students and interns learn more about their chosen fields working in local businesses; and university faculty provide insight into a wide variety of business issues.

Downtown BG works in partnership with Bowling Green State University and their over 18,000 students from all 50 states and 70 countries worldwide to organize downtown events year round in order to support the Downtown Bowling Green Business District.

Collaboration

- Homecoming parade and festivities
- Undergraduate and Graduate student interns in a wide range of disciplines
- Family events at the University scheduled year round brings visitors to the downtown business district

About BGSU

- Campus less than a mile from Downtown Bowling Green and I-75
- 18 NCAA Division 1 athletic teams in the Mid American Conference
- Home to the Center for Regional Development (CRD)
- Stroh Center for athletics and entertainment opening Fall 2011
- Internationally recognized Wolfe Center for the Arts opening Fall 2011
- 154,000 Alumni with 46 Alumni Chapters and 19 Societies Worldwide

